A new Convoy of Ammunition and Provisions, with Stores of Cordage and other Rigging, is getting ready with all Diligence to be sent to the Fleet. We have an Account from Dalmatia, that the Army there under the Command of Sig. In the Arsenal here they are hard at Work to finish 8 Men of War of the second Rate, two of which are already launched. They write from Padua, that this Week the Electoral Prince of Saxony left that Place, in Order to proceed by easy Journeys to Inspruck, where he is to go into Mourning for the Death of his Grandmother the late Electress Dowager.
